

CALL FOR ARTISTS: PLEASE TOUCH THE ART

Deadline: Friday, April 13, 2018 at 9 pm

Exhibition Dates: June 1-July 30, 2018 at the McKeon Center for Creativity in downtown Tulsa

Submissions/Questions: Cindy Barton, cindy.barton@tulsacc.edu; 918-595-7339

Artists are invited to submit work in any medium for possible inclusion in the upcoming “Please Touch the Art” exhibition. The exhibition will engage all five senses, with a particular focus on accessibility for visitors who are blind or visually impaired. Artworks in all media will be considered, with strong preference given to works that engage touch, sound, smell, or taste, and/or include participatory elements. Proposals for new work or works-in-progress will also be considered.

Now in its third year, the exhibition and associated programming are attended by thousands of visitors, including many who are blind or visually impaired. The public also enjoys a free opening reception on the First Friday in June (June 1, 2018), with free limo bus rides to and from the Brady Arts District.

COMPENSATION

Each artist selected for the exhibition will be paid a $150 honorarium after the artwork is delivered. Selected artists will be invited to submit workshop proposals, which are eligible for additional compensation. Artwork may be offered for sale, but all details of the transaction, including any applicable taxes, must be handled solely by the artist. No commission will be assessed.

CONSIDERATIONS

Please consider how the artwork will be safely exhibited, considering that no holes can be nailed or drilled into the walls or floor of the exhibition space. Work may be displayed via a hook and wire hanging system, or on podiums or the floor. Adhesive decals that are easily removed may be used on windows or walls. Artists may also build/create their own display solution. All art exhibitions are deemed at the artist's own risk.
